

21st Carolinas-Virginias Junior Team Matches

Boonsboro Country Club

Lynchburg, Virginia

August 16-17, 2003

Carolinas 8, Virginias 4

The Carolinas side won in Virginia for the first time since 1997. The Virginias had won five of the last six matches. The Carolinas juniors jumped to a commanding three to one lead after the first day of four-ball matches and won the singles matches by a five to three margin.

The junior team match format was changed to give one point to the winner of each 18-hole match. The old format awarded points for nine-hole results as well.
