

19th North Carolina Senior
Landfall Country Club
Wilmington, North Carolina
May 26-28, 2004
Champion: Robert Kulp, Jr.
Winston-Salem

Robert Kulp “backed in” to victory. Kulp stated, “I have finally learned to never give up and concentrate on every shot.” It paid off as the Landfall curse continued for Larry Boswell. Larry shot an unthinkable 83 in the final round and jokingly stated that he would think hard about ever playing here again. Kulp hit his second shot on the par five 18th to within 15 feet for an easy birdie and a two shot lead over Ernie Newton of High Point. Newton also birdied the 18th but finished one stroke short. Strong swirling winds made the perfectly conditioned Dye layout play much more difficult for the final round. Proper club selection was the key to a good score.
