

91st Carolinas Amateur Championship
Greenville Country Club (Chanticleer),
Greenville, SC
July 13-17, 2005
Champion: Paul Simson
Raleigh, NC

A little encouragement never hurt anyone. Downtrodden and dejected from his near miss for the US Senior Open qualifying round, Paul Simson came home to hear his son Phillip give him some fatherly advice. “Phillip told me to channel all my frustration from missing the qualifier and use it to win the Carolinas Am,” said Paul. “I took those words to heart and look what happened.” Simson made double bogey on the final hole to miss making the trip to this year’s U.S. Senior Open championship. But good things came from it.

With those words etched in his mind, Simson came to Greenville Country Club’s Chanticleer course ready to play. The result was 54 year-old Simson defeating Dustin Barr of Mooresville, NC by a 6 and 5 margin to capture his 13th CGA win and second Carolinas Amateur. Simson’s last Carolinas Amateur win was in 1991 which makes the 14-year margin a CGA record for the most years between wins. With this Carolinas Amateur win, Simson’s CGA collection includes four Carolinas Mid-Amateurs, two Carolinas Amateurs, one Father-Son, five North Carolina Amateurs, and one North Carolina Mid-Amateur. “I have won the North Carolina Amateur a few times, but winning the Carolinas Amateur means so much to me,” said Simson. “This championship has so much history and being the two-state champion is just great.”
