

60th Carolinas-Virginias Team Matches
Dunes Golf and Beach Club
Myrtle Beach, SC
October 21-23, 2005
Carolinas 27.5, Virginias 20.5

The Carolinas regained the "Captain's Putter" with an outstanding performance from the Regulars at the Dunes Golf and Beach Club. The Carolinas had not won since 2001. Powered by a strong 12.5 to 3.5 win, the Regulars offset a Carolinas Senior one-point deficit on the final day to win by a 27.5 to 20.5 margin.

"I am really proud of the way the regulars came through for us today," said Captain Paul Simson of Raleigh, NC. "It was an outstanding performance which made all the difference."

Play is based on a Ryder-Cup style format with each match worth one point. Halved matches earn a half point each. The final round format is singles match play.

The event is one of the oldest team events in the country. The best 24 amateurs from North and South Carolina compete against their counterparts from Virginia and West Virginia. 16 regulars and eight seniors represent each team.
