

23rd Carolinas-Virginias Junior Team Matches

Boonsboro Country Club

Lynchburg, VA

August 13-14, 2005

Virginias 8, Carolinas 8

A see-saw battle on Sunday resulted in the Carolinas-Virginias Junior matches being halved in an eight-all tie after the Sunday's singles matches. The Virginias won the first two matches of the morning to tie the overall score at five a piece. The Carolinas team fought back to halve four of the last five matches and lost one match to secure the tie against the talented Virginias team. The tie lets the Virginias team retain the Vinny Giles trophy for another year. Each team was represented by eight of the best junior golfers from the Carolinas and the Virginias and play foursome, fourball and Sunday singles matches.

David Parrot Award

The David Parrott award is given annually to the Carolinas Team player who displays excellence in sportsmanship, ability, and academic excellence. The award is presented by Dr. Larry Parrott of Camden, SC in honor of his son David.

David Parrot was diagnosed with leukemia in the spring of 1982. During his brief illness, he participated in the golf camp at Duke University and competed in the SCGA South Carolina Junior Championship, finishing third in his flight.

He was given the Derek Davis sportsmanship award at the championship for his effort, determination and inspiration he gave to all who knew him. David died July 29, 1982 at the age of 16.
