

45th North Carolina Amateur Country Club of Asheville Asheville, NC June 9-12, 2005 Champion: Jerry Richardson, Jr. Burlington, NC

Jerry Richardson, Jr. shot a final round 72 to capture the 45th North Carolina Amateur Championship. Richardson, a college junior at North Carolina State University, bettered fellow competitors Mike Goodes and Marc Matalavage in the final group to win in his first appearance of the event. Although Richardson was tested by the skill of the rest of the field, perhaps their most difficult opponent was Tropical Storm Arlene, which kept the Country Club of Asheville wet throughout the week and caused two rain delays on Friday. Wet conditions, fast greens, and deep bluegrass rough kept the player's challenged and the scores above par. "I am just so proud to have won the tournament," said Richardson. "There is nothing more prestigious than winning your own state amateur. Richardson had nothing but respect for his fellow competitor. "Mike (Goodes) was such a grinder and a great putter. I played a practice round with him and got a lot of pointers just from watching the way he played the game. He's really good."
