

44th Carolinas Senior
Camden Country Club
Camden, SC
September 12-14, 2005
Champion: Bob Stringer
Blythewood, SC

Camden Country Club, at just 6200 yards, may be the most difficult short course in the Carolinas. Every hole has at least one shot, which if not executed to perfection, will lead to a bogey or worse. Every green demands a perfect first putt or the result is the same.

Bob Stringer of Blythewood, SC limped home from behind to capture his first major championship. That's right, limped in from behind. His birdie on the last hole, gave him a one stroke victory over Brodie Baker of Bermuda Run, NC. Playing in a shoe split open to make room for his swollen and broken foot, Stringer fired the only par round of the day to overtake second round leader Bill Palmer of Bluffton, SC. "I never imagined in my wildest dreams that I would win this championship," said Stringer. Defending champion Vic Hannon credited Bob's victory to a swing adjustment needed to accommodate the injury. Hannon, Stringer's long time four-ball partner, noted the change shortened his backswing and lead to more consistent ball striking.
