

28th Carolinas Women's Four-Ball Wachesaw Plantation Club Murrells Inlet, South Carolina August 2-3, 2005 Champions: Lori Teague, Taylorsville, NC and Patty Moore, Charlotte, NC

Patty Moore of Charlotte, NC, and Lori Teague of Taylorsville, NC successfully defended their title by firing a final round four-under par 68—133. Moore, the 2004 Carolinas Women's and Senior Women's Player of the Year, carded four birdies and Teague rolled in one on the par-3 7th hole. Moore has now won this championship four times. Two with airline pilot, Terrie Foote of Cornelius, NC and two with Teague. "I guess you could say that I am good at picking my partners," said Moore with a big smile. The defending champions outlasted Debbie Adams of Asheville, NC and Melissa Sage of Charlotte, NC by two-strokes. Adams and Sage had their chances but could not convert enough birdie opportunities to catch the dynamic duo of Moore-Teague. Moore and Teague are holding the Vicki Hillen memorial trophy that will be presented to the champions each year. Hillen passed away just a few weeks before the championship after her long fight with lung cancer. Ironically, Wachesaw was her home club. She was a wonderful golfer and a true lady. She will be missed by all who knew her.
