

10th Island Four-Ball
Casa De Campo,
Dominican Republic
February 22-24, 2006

Champions: Steve Harwell, Mooresville, NC and Patrick Brady, Reidsville, NC

Steve Harwell of Mooresville, NC and Patrick Brady of Reidsville, NC survived a dog fight on the Teeth of the Dog golf course to capture the 2006 Island Four-Ball Championship. Harwell and Brady were tied with Logan Jackson of Winston-Salem, NC and Rob Chapman of Spartanburg, SC with two holes remaining in this 54-hole gross and net four-ball event played at the Casa de Campo resort in the Dominican Republic. Brady then birdied the seaside 17th hole to take a one shot lead, and secured the victory. This is the third year in a row that Harwell has been a member of the winning team. The past two years he has won this championship with John Hurt of Davidson, NC. Wayne and Josh Petty of Burlington captured the net title in the Altos flight. In the Campo flight, Harold Robinson and Bill Biggins, both of Camden, SC captured the gross title and Jeff and Kathy Howe of Gastonia, NC won the net title. Walter and Julie Lofink of Aiken, SC won the gross title in the Playa flight, while Ellen Jackson of Winston-Salem, NC and Lacy Chapman of Spartanburg, SC won the net division in the Playa flight. This annual championship is conducted on the three courses at the Casa de Campo resort. The courses include the Dye Fore course, the Links course and the 34th ranked course in the world, the beautiful Teeth of the Dog course.
