

5th Mid-Atlantic Challenge (Junior Girls' Team Matches) Independence Golf Club, Midlothian, VA

August 4-6, 2006

Carolinas 8, Virginias 4

The Carolinas team, which led following day one four-ball action, 3-1, used some strong late play to get past Virginia-Maryland in singles, 5-3. Carolinas posted their third consecutive victory in the series and now lead the all-time competition, 4-1-0. The final day single matches proved to be very exciting. The remaining five matches on the final day went to the last hole. Taylor Weaver holed a 25-foot birdie putt at the par-5 17th hole to square the match against Michelle Grilli and made a downhill 10-footer at the 18th to win 1-up. In match five, Hilary Lawson was 4-down through six holes, but came back to square the match against Amber Littman on the closing nine. Littman then made a 25-footer for birdie at the par-4 15th to take a 1-up lead that she would not relinquish the rest of the day. Rachel Uremovich made a 12-footer for birdie on the 18th from near the exact same place Weaver drained her putt to give Carolinas another point on the day. Erica Creed enjoys these matches very much. "This is something we all look forward to all summer and we work hard to get on the team. It's so much fun to play with your friends and get to spend the weekend meeting other people."
