

12th Tar Heel Cup Matches
Pine Needles Lodge and Golf Club, Southern Pines, NC
April 3-4, 2006
Professionals 20, Amateurs 16

The North Carolina professionals edged the North Carolina amateurs in both singles and four-ball play to win the Tar Heel Cup matches at Pine Needles. In the singles matches, the professionals won three matches, halved four and lost one. The North Carolina professionals improve their overall winning record, 10-2. The points are based on a Nassau format with one point each credited to the winners on the front side, the back side, and overall eighteen holes. A total of three points is available in each match. This event is conducted annually by the Carolinas Golf Association and the Carolinas PGA section.
