

25th Carolinas-Virginias Junior Team Matches

Boonsboro Country Club, Lynchburg, VA

August 18-19, 2007

Carolinas 6, Virginias 10

The eight-golfer Virginias team prevailed for a four-point victory (10-6) over their Carolinas counterparts to win the 25th Virginias-Carolinas Junior Matches. Virginias owned a one-point edge (4½-3½) following first-day foursome and four-ball matches. In a closely-contested final day of singles matches, Virginias notched a three-point victory (5½-2½). Virginias took home the Vinny Giles Trophy, snapped a two-match winless streak and claimed their first victory at Boonsboro since 2001, also their last win on Virginia soil. Carolinas leads the series 14-11.

David Parrott Award

The David Parrott award is given annually to the Carolinas Team player who displays excellence in sportsmanship, ability, and academic excellence. The award is presented by Dr. Larry Parrott of Camden, SC in memory of his son David.

David Parrott was diagnosed with leukemia in the spring of 1982 and during his brief illness, he participated in the golf camp at Duke University and competed in the SCGA South Carolina Junior Championship, finishing third in his flight.

He was given the Derek Davis sportsmanship award at the championship for his effort, determination and inspiration he gave to all who knew him. David died July 29, 1982 at the age of 16.
