

2nd Vicki DiSantis Junior Girls’
Championship
Emerald Lake Golf Club
Matthews, NC
May 5-6, 2007
Champion: Meghan Moore, Bahama, NC

On a day when it was very easy to get blown off track, Meghan Moore of Bahama, NC kept her balance and won the 2nd Vicki DiSantis Junior Girls’ Championship at Emerald Lake Golf Club in Matthews, NC. Moore, a high school sophomore, had the round of the day finishing at 3-over par 74 with winds averaging 15-20 miles per hour. “I was just trying to keep my balance and maintain my tempo,” said Moore. “I felt if I could keep it around par I would have a good chance to win.” Finishing in second place, five shots behind was Erica Creed of Kernersville, NC. Creed, a high school senior who committed to play collegiate golf at UNC-Greensboro, played steady to finish one shot ahead of third place finisher Darlea Carr of Pinehurst, NC, the first round leader. In the sub junior flight, Casey Ward of Chapel Hill, NC placed first, four shots ahead of Mallory Warrick of Wilson, NC. This annual junior girls’ championship features the top ranked junior girls from North and South Carolina.
