Champions: Laura Crawford, Lancaster, SC

and Blythe Worley, Greenville, NC

Defending champions, Blythe Worley of Greenville, NC and Laura Crawford of Lancaster, SC fired a 5-under par 67 to get their names on the Vicki Hillen memorial trophy for a second year in a row. Worley, who attends the University of South Carolina and Crawford, who attends Wake Forest, said they left a lot of putts out on the course and didn't play all that well.

"I guess we played well together," said Worley. "When one of us had a bad hole the other would pick up the slack and save the team. We definitely make a good pair and we play well together." Temperatures reached well over the 100 degree mark throughout the championship which made for difficult playing conditions for most of the players.
Past champions, Lori Teague of Newton, NC and Patty Moore of Charlotte, NC finished in a tie for second place six shots back of the leaders. They hold the tie for most wins as a team in this championship. *Photo from left: Blythe Worley
