

8th North Carolina Senior Four-Ball
Benvenue Country Club
Rocky Mount, NC
August 5-7, 2008
Champions: Logan Jackson,
Winston-Salem
and David Strawn, Charlotte

In true ham and egg fashion, David Strawn of Charlotte, NC and Logan Jackson of Winston Salem, NC successfully defended their NC Senior Four-Ball title. “Numerous times when one of us had a tough par putt, the other was out of the hole,” said David. Their final round 68 was the low score of the day and gave them a one stroke win over the teams of Burris-Aldridge and Watterworth-Powell. Strawn and Jackson praised the Donald Ross creation as an “extremely difficult but fair golf course.” Strawn made a lengthy putt on the first hole for their only bogey but made three birdies along with Jackson’s two birdies. This marks the first time in CGA history that a team has won this event twice. Strawn also won the 2005 NC Senior Four-Ball Championship with Woody Green of Linville, NC. Photo from left: David Strawn and Logan Jackson.
