

11th Carolinas Women's Match Play
Cowans Ford Country Club
Stanley, NC
July 15-17, 2008
Champion: Patty Moore
Charlotte, NC

Defending champion Patty Moore of Charlotte, NC faced off against 50-year-old Maggie Weder of Greenville, NC in the final championship match. Weder, who is a former US Marine and battles with M.S., found herself 1 down when Moore started out strong and stuck her approach shot to 4 feet and drained her birdie putt with confidence. The two went head to head throughout the afternoon and traded the lead until Weder made double after hitting her drive into the hazard on the 9th hole. Moore would find herself 2 up heading to the back nine. Moore would then go 3 up after 11 holes and Weder had to dig deep inside herself to fight back. “I really wanted this win for myself,” said Weder. “Every time Maggie would stand over a putt I would be swallowing hard,” Moore said. Both players would tie holes 14 and 15. Weder hit a great drive on the 16th hole to allow her to reach the 378 yard par 4 in regulation while Moore’s approach found the greenside bunker and she failed to get up and down. Weder felt like she never gave up and she had a great chance to actually win her first CGA championship title. Moore had a chance to close out Weder on the 17th hole but she failed to make her par putt which extended the match to the 18th hole. Moore’s wedge shot would come within four feet of the flagstick and she made her birdie putt for the 2 up victory. “What a great match this was,” said Moore. “It was a lot of fun and I am proud to have defended my title.”
