

9th North Carolina Senior Four-Ball Pinewild Country Club (Magnolia) Pinehurst, NC

August 11-13, 2009

Champions: Paul Simson, Raleigh and Don Detweiler, Raleigh

In 2008, when Don Detweiler asked Paul Simson to be his partner in the Carolinas Senior 4-Ball at Landfall, Paul said “Yes, if you will prepare yourself to win.” Don took his words to heart and the Raleigh team has won two of the three CGA 4-Ball events they have entered. A second place in the Carolinas Senior 4-Ball in Greenville, SC early this year was their only blemish. After another slow start, the duo caught fire on the back nine, carding five birdies to easily win by four strokes. The outcome was in doubt for a while as they held just a one shot advantage with nine holes to go over 2004 champions, Don Slater and Lea Couch. Brothers Julian and John Bunn of Raleigh had their best finish in a CGA team event with a tie for second. John Fritz made the most of his senior debut with partner Walt Andrews by matching Simson and Detweiler’s low tournament round of 66. Photo from left: Paul Simson and Don Detweiler.

Pinewild Country Club has been very good to the CGA over the years.
Here on the 18th hole of the Magnolia course players have to negotiate a water hazard.
