July 6-8, 2010
Champion: Austin Ernst, Seneca, SC

Austin Ernst of Seneca, SC captured her second CGA major championship title of 2010 by defeating Dawn Woodard of Greer, SC 4 & 3 in the finals of the Carolinas Women's Match Play Championship. Ernst, 18, first faced off against Courtney Taylor of Gastonia, NC in the semifinals. Ernst then went on to face off against 35-year-old Dawn Woodard of Greer, SC. Ernst started off strong by making an eagle on the par-5 1st and then continued with a birdie on the second hole. All of a sudden, Woodard was 2 down after two holes. Woodard remained calm and stuck to her plan of trying to knock it close to the flagstick on every hole. The problem was that Ernst's game plan was the same. "All I was trying to do was to get it close on every hole," said Ernst. "I just happened to make all my putts too." Ernst went out with a four under 31 and found herself 3 up after nine holes. Ernst then birdied the 10th hole to go 4 up and never looked back. Ernst was dormie on the par 4 14th but Woodard would make her birdie putt to extend the match to the 15th hole. Both players made birdie and Ernst closed out the match 4 & 3. At this point in her round Ernst was already 7-under par. A member of the club who was watching the match asked her to finish out her round to see if she could break the course record. Ernst went on to par out the last three holes and carded a 64 on the day. While Woodard was disappointed with a runner-up finish she felt like she played well. "I tried to stay calm out there," said Woodard. "I figured that she (Ernst) couldn't keep making the putts she was making but I was mistaken. Her putter was on fire and there was nothing I could do but try to make all mine too. It was her day to win."
