

7th North Carolina Women's Senior
Cedarwood Country Club
Charlotte, NC
April 27-28, 2010
Champion: Pat Brogden, Garner

Pat Brogden of Garner, NC captured her 5th major CGA Championship title after facing tough and windy conditions to win the 7th North Carolina Women's Senior Amateur Championship by four strokes over defending champion, Melissa Sage of Charlotte, NC. Brogden always knew where she stood throughout the day but felt that the 11th hole could have been a pivotal hole in the championship. "I knew I still had a two shot lead while lining up my putt but Melissa (Sage) had a birdie putt and I knew if I didn't make a par we would be tied." Sage's birdie putt just stayed on the edge of the hole while Brogden made her tricky four foot putt. "I didn't do anything spectacular out there today but I kept hitting fairways and greens." Brogden said. Brogden now holds the Carolinas Women's Senior Amateur and the North Carolina Women's Senior titles within the same year. The left handed, cross handed player is becoming the one player to defeat. In the tournament tee division, Kay Wheeler of Charlotte, NC had a total of 161 to win the tournament tee division. This division plays a shorter course.
