CAROLINAS GOLF ASSOCIATION ANNOUNCES
CGAcers HOLE in ONE CLUB
2011 CONTEST WINNERS

WEST END, NC – The Carolinas Golf Association announced the winners of the 2011 CGAcer Hole in One Club Contest held on January 31, 2012. CGA members who made a hole in one in 2011 and submitted an application were eligible. Prizes for the 2011 annual drawing for holes-in-one winners are:

- 1st Place – CGA golf shirt and “Golf in the Carolinas” Centennial Book
- 2nd Place – CGA Tervis Tumblers and “Golf in the Carolinas” Centennial Book
- 3rd Place – CGA Towel and “Golf in the Carolinas” Centennial Book

The three winners are:

- Dick Christensen (Westminster, SC) – August 31 (Hole 8 – 140 yards – 5 Iron) The Trails at Chickasaw Point, Westminster, SC
- Dwight Annesley (Southport, NC) – August 9 (Hole 14 – 146 Yards – 8 Iron) St. James Plantation, Southport, NC
- Carolyn Sepich (Raleigh, NC) – July 15 (Hole 4 – 119 Yards – 3 Wood) Wildwood Green Golf Club, Raleigh, NC

All three golfers had their holes-in-one at their respective CGA member club.

Three hundred and thirty four (334) members submitted applications to the CGAcers club for holes-in-one in 2011. The longest ace made was a 227 yarder on June 29 by Terrance Fisher from Raleigh, NC at the Riverwood Golf and Athletic Club in Clayton, NC. Fisher used a 14 degree hybrid on Hole #2. The shortest was a 67 yard 8-iron shot made by June Martello from Southport, NC on February 27 at the Players Course at St. James Plantation, Southport, NC on the 6th hole.

St. James Plantation in Southport, NC reported the most holes-in-one with 37 and Ocean Ridge Plantation in Sunset Beach, NC was second with 22.

Sixteen golfers accomplished the rare feat of recording two (2) Holes-In-One in the same calendar year! Five of those golfers accomplished their holes-in-one on the same hole! That feat belongs to Ed Gates, Jim Tralka, Jack Turner, Elizabeth Winslow and Jurgen Wokatsch.

- Thom Clark (Tarboro, NC) – April 12 (Hole 18 – 111 Yards – 8 Iron) and October 14 (Hole 12 – 140 Yards – 8 Iron) – both at The Links at Cotton Valley, Tarboro, NC.
