

11th Tar Heel Cup Matches

Pinewild Country Club (Magnolia)

Pinehurst, NC

April 4-5, 2005

Professionals 19, Amateurs 17

Sixteen of the finest golfers in North Carolina took part in two days of friendly competition at the 11th Annual Tar Heel Cup Matches. Amateurs of the Carolinas Golf Association battle the Professionals of the Carolinas PGA Section. This year's event proved to be the most competitive and exciting one in a number of years. The entire tournament came down to the Paul Simson and David Thore match-up. Thore birdied holes 17 and 18 to clinch the trophy for the CPGA. The CPGA won the event by a 19-17 score. The CPGA Professionals were the defending champions and have now won nine out of eleven times since the inaugural event in 1995.
