

48th North Carolina Amateur
Raleigh Country Club
Raleigh, NC
June 12-15, 2008
Champion: Jack Fields
Southern Pines, NC

18-year-old Jack Fields of Southern Pines, fired a course record 8 under par to win the North Carolina Amateur Championship at Raleigh Country Club. He was seven shots back entering the final round. Fields, who is enrolled at the University of North Carolina, was the only golfer under par for the championship with a 283 total. 22-year-old Zack Byrd of Calabash finished alone in second, one shot back. Third-round leader Reed Darsie of Chapel Hill, who has completed his stint as a UNC golfer, finished with an even-par 71 to finish third. Fields' round included an eagle on the par-5 8th and a rare double-eagle on the par-5 15th. He hit three wood into both greens. "I was really disappointed in the way I had been hitting my three-wood last week and was ready to trade it in," said Fields, the state high school 4A champion. "However, after hitting those two shots I am going to hang onto it for a while!" Fields started the day slowly with some good up and downs. But pars gave way to birdies for nines of 31-32. His bogeys came on 10 and 17. Fields attributed his win partly to dad Mike who was his caddy. "Dad kept me calm and it was nice having him on the bag. Especially on Father's Day."
