River Hills CC (Lake Wylie, SC) captured their 2nd CGA Interclub Championship after winning two matches in the final four at Pine Needles Lodge & Golf Club in Southern Pines. This "Final-Four" format involved 12 players from each club competing in Four-Ball (best ball) and Individual Singles Matches with the most cumulative points determining the champion. Two points are awarded for a singles win and two points in each four-ball match. River Hills advanced to the Championship round by playing flawless golf in defeating the team from Cramer Mountain CC (Cramerton, NC) 32 - 4. Eleven players from RHCC won both their individual and four-ball matches, while Tom Conrad and Fred Kimsey led Cramer Mountain with 4 points. In the Championship match, Coharie took the early lead when their first group recorded a 4 - 2 win. They maintained the advantage through the next four groups and held a narrow margin (16 - 14) with the final group to decide who would win the championship. Playing in the final match, Matt Boepple and Paul Thomas had secured at least a tie for River Hills after winning both individual matches (4&3 and 3&2 respectively). With a 2 up lead on the four-ball match, and needing only a tie on one of the remaining three holes, Paul Thomas two putted the par 3, 16th to tie Will Waters and claim the 2009 Interclub trophy. The Carolinas Interclub Team Matches began in 1996 which were started by Ben Payne of Greensboro, NC. The CGA assumed the duties of this event in 2006 as a service to the more than 719 member clubs representing approximately 174,000 golfers throughout North and South Carolina.
