Champion: Courtney Taylor, Gastonia, NC

Courtney Taylor of Gastonia, NC fired a one under par round of 70 to capture her fifth CGA Junior Championship title. Taylor felt this win was bittersweet. "I am sad that this is my last junior championship but I am happy and excited to get to college and start another chapter of my life." Taylor finished strong carding three birdies on the inward nine with two of those birdies made on #16 and #17. "I felt pretty focused out there," Taylor said. "I just kept trying to hit it close." Taylor hit her approach shot over the 18th green but was able to get up and down for a par and the win. "I played pretty steady. I was just trying to make a lot of pars but all of a sudden Lori Beth (Adams) and Anne Marie (Covar) started making birdies and I knew it was time to become more aggressive on the greens," said Taylor. Defending champion Anne Marie Covar of Edgefield, SC was tied for the lead heading into 18 when she missed the green in regulation and was unable to get up and down to force a playoff with Taylor. "I felt like I played pretty well. It just wasn't good enough in the end," Covar said.
