Match Notes

A new beginning... The 2002 meeting was the beginning for two important streaks. First, it marked the genesis of a new scoring format in which the teams only get one point per match. Prior to 2002, the format was based on a Nassau format in which teams fought for two points on the front, back and overall 18 holes, for a total of six points per match. Second, that year was also the start of a three-year winning streak for the Virginias, the same winning streak they are on entering this year's matches. Virginias owns a 7-5-0 lead dating back to 2002.

Perfection... Six players on each team's roster have won all possible points in a year (# of years). For the Carolinas: Rick Cloninger, Jim Grainger, Scott Harvey (2), Steve Liebler, Paul Simson (5), and Brian Westveer. For the Virginias: Matt Chandler, Keith Decker (2), Jon Hurst, Dave Pulk, and Scott Shingler.

2014 USGA champions... Each team boasts a recent USGA champion. In September, Scott Harvey (Carolinas) captured the U.S. Mid-Amateur title and Pat Tallent (Virginias) won the U.S. Senior Amateur.

When it rains, it... The singles matches have rained out three times since 1966: 1971, 1987, and 1993. The Carolinas hosted each of these matches. The home field advantage proved helpful in 1971 (see page two) and 1987 for the home team as the CGA posted victories, but harmful in 1993, as the Virginias came from behind to win by four points. Only one player has had to endure all three rainouts: Vinny Giles.

Junior team matches...The Carolinas junior team won the Vinny Giles Trophy this summer defeating the Virginias junior team by a score of 9 to 7 at River Landing GC in Wallace, N.C. With the victory, Carolinas claimed its fourth consecutive win in the series—their longest win streak since the first four years of the matches (1983-86). Carolinas leads the all-time series, 18-13-1 and the series is 5-5-1 dating back to 2004.

Recent years... In last year's matches, two evenly-matched teams produced a close final result as the Virginias team notched a three-point victory (25½-22½) at Grandfather Golf and Country Club in Linville, N.C.

Virginias owned a five-point advantage following first day four-ball and foursome matches, but Carolinas answered to claim singles' encounters, 13-11. On Saturday, Virginias' regulars won singles by one point (8½-7½), while Carolinas claimed senior singles' matches by three points (5½-2½).

Over the two days of matches, Virginias' regulars outscored their opponents by six points (19-13), while Carolinas' seniors held a three-point advantage (9½-6½). The three-point margin separating the teams marked the closest margin of victory for either squad since 2002 when the event went to a one-point per match format.

Virginias retained the Captain's Putter Trophy awarded to the champions and notched its third straight victory in the matches. Virginias three-match victory run marks the second time in the all-time history of the event that Virginias has won three consecutive years, having also accomplished the feat from 2002-04.

Host notes... The matches are making their first visit to The Club at Creighton Farms, a Jack Nicklaus Signature Golf Course. A scenic par-72, 7,410-yard layout that opened in 2008, Creighton Farms was one of two private courses in the world to achieve recognition by Golf Digest, Golf Magazine, and Travel + Leisure Golf in the same season. In 2009, Golfweek selected Creighton Farms among its "Best New Private Golf Courses." Creighton Farms reflects the Nicklaus trademark of a challenging design, focusing on course management strategy and precision rather than power.

Captain's Putter Match Results, 1955-1965

The individual records contained in these pages were compiled from 1966 to present due to the fact that those results from previous years were unavailable. The years 1955-1963 saw two matches per year before changing to one per year in 1964.

The individual results from 1966 are available because of Hale Van Hoy, who kept complete records after assuming the duties of the Executive Director of the Carolinas Golf Association. The individual results from 1955-1965 are being sought, and when found, will be added to this book. Currently, the CGA has located results (individual and team) for the years 1956-1959 (both matches) but is still looking for 1955, and 1960-1965. If anyone has information that could improve these archives, please contact the CGA office. (910-673-1000)
