

Tournament of Champions and Interclub Challenge

Greensboro National GC, Summerfield • Saturday and Sunday, April 2-3

TOURNAMENT OF CHAMPIONS

Eligibility: Amateur club champions from the Triad Golf Today circulation area and winners of other 2105 qualifying tournaments of at least two days by players from Triad clubs. Does not have to enter with team.

Format: Two-day medal play. Sudden death playoff for first place only.

INTERCLUB CHALLENGE 3-MAN TEAM COMPETITION

Eligibility: Each club champion is invited to bring a team consisting of himself and two other amateur club members or association members. The team can be composed of any combination of regulars and seniors. The team can consist of all regulars or all seniors. Regulars will play from the back tees (approximately 6,600 to 6,800 yards) and seniors will play from the white tees (6,200 yards or less). If the club champion can not attend, the club runner-up or a club official is responsible for assembling the team. A club or association can enter more than one three-man team using any combination of regulars or seniors. All players must be a member of the club or the club's golf association.

Format: Total of the best two front-nine scores and the best two back-nine scores each day. This format is similar to the USGA's State Team Championship.

CHALLENGE FLIGHT (ages 54-under)

Eligibility: Interclub Challenge team members who are not eligible for T of C.

Format: Two-day medal play. Sudden death playoff for first place only. The Challenge Flight winner qualifies for the 2017 Tournament of Champions.

SENIOR CHAMPIONSHIP

Eligibility: Players age 55-over who won the senior club championship or other qualifying senior tournament during 2014 or are the team's senior representative(s). Entries must be at least 55 on April 2, 2016. Sudden death playoff for first place only.

Note: If a senior-age player is eligible and chooses to play in the Tournament of Champions division, he must play from the back tees.
