Rock Hill Country Club was originally designed by A.W. Tillinghast in the early 1930's and although not a long course, it proves to be a tremendous challenge. Kris Spence recently completed a renovation in 2013 of the entire golf course, which included converting the greens from Bentgrass to Mini-Verde Bermuda and enlarging and re-contouring all the greens.

The Dogwood Four-Ball has been around in various forms for decades. We look forward to continuing that legacy as we host a new generation of golfers with a format that is popular in today's game.

Sincerely,

The Dogwood Four-Ball Committee
&
