

4th North Carolina Women's Senior
Greensboro Country Club, Farm
Greensboro, NC
September 25-26, 2007
Champion: Pat Brogden
Garner

Pat Brogden of Garner, NC posted a final round 74 to win the 4th North Carolina Women's Senior Amateur Championship by five-strokes over Kathy Bounds of Cary, NC. Brogden, a school teacher who plays golf left-hand cross-handed, carded two birdies and five bogeys during her final round. The victory is Brogden's second CGA championship title. "I played very solid today," stated Brogden. "Good course management was the key to my game.

I knew that I had to post a good number in order to win."

In the Super Senior division, Gloria Anthony of Greensboro, NC carded a second straight round of 83 for a two-shot victory over first round leader Linda Marsh of Greensboro, NC. The field was flighted for the final round according to first round scores. Defending champion, Melissa Sage of Charlotte, NC was unable to defend her title this year due to personal reasons. Past champion, Patty Moore of Charlotte, NC qualified for the U.S. Women's Mid-Amateur Championship in Arizona and was also unable to compete in this year's championship.

The North Carolina Women's Senior Championship is open to any female who is at least 50 years of age, is a member of a CGA member club and is a resident of North Carolina. The Super Senior division is for competitors 65 years of age or older and they play a shorter course.
