

95th Carolinas Amateur Championship
Country Club of Charleston,
Charleston, SC
July 8-12, 2009
Champion: Jack Fields
Southern Pines, NC

Jack Fields, 19, of Southern Pines, NC defeated Josh Gallman, 20, of Gaffney, SC by an 8 and 7 score to win the 95th Carolinas Amateur Championship. Fields never trailed in the 36-hole final match. "I wanted to keep going after the first 18 holes," Fields said. "I had the momentum and felt confident during the round. I knew if I kept making pars and birdies that I would win." The afternoon round began with the 19th hole being halved with par fours. It took 20 holes but Gallman finally made his first birdie of the day to cut the lead to a 6-up Fields advantage.

At a time where Gallman needed to make a move, he and Fields halved the 24th through 27th holes. Gallman's birdie on the 28th hole cut the lead to 7-up for Fields. However on the infamous 186-yard par 3 11th hole (29th hole of the match) Gallman was unable to get up and down for the par. Fields had two putts to win the championship but put an exclamation point on the match by canning the putt from just off the green to win. "The 11th hole dominated me this week," Fields noted. "I never hit the green in regulation and I think I made six bogeys and only one par. I knew I had two putts to win but wanted to make that birdie putt. It's a great honor to have won both the Carolinas Amateur and North Carolina Amateur." Fields is one of ten individuals to win both the Carolinas Amateur and the North Carolina Amateur Championships.
