

2nd North Carolina Super Senior
Country Club of Salisbury
Salisbury, NC
September 29-30, 2009
Champion: John Deluise,
Raleigh

John Deluise of Raleigh, NC fired a final round three-under par 68 to win the 2nd North Carolina Super Senior Championship by two strokes over Tom Hadley of Hendersonville, NC. The victory is Deluise's first CGA championship title. His score card included five birdies versus two bogeys and he played the last 14 holes at four-under par. "I have finished second many times but this is my first CGA win," Deluise said. "It's very exciting!" Deluise came to the final hole with a four shot advantage over Hadley. However, Hadley made a last ditch run at the title by holing his second shot from the fairway for an eagle two to instantly cut Deluise's lead in half. "Tom's shot on 18 was unreal. I was glad to have a big lead because it's never easy for me at these events as that final shot proved." Deluise was able to make a comfortable par on the final hole to secure the two stroke win. Defending champion Larry Boswell of Jamestown, NC posted a one-under par 70—145 and finished alone in third place. The North Carolina Super Senior Championship is open to men age 65 and over, who are legal residents of North Carolina, and have a 15.4 or lower handicap index at a CGA member club.
