

1st Carolinas Young Amateur Pinewild Country Club (Magnolia) Pinehurst, NC

January 5-6, 2009

Champion: Drew Weaver, High Point, NC

In 2009 the CGA added the Carolinas Young Amateur to the schedule. This championship was created for players who are 18 to 23 years old and who have finished high school. The inaugural championship crown went to Drew Weaver of High Point, NC.

Weaver, who played golf for Virginia Tech, was the first-round leader. He continued his precision play on the final day scoring a one-under par 71 on the 7,088 yard par 72 course. "This is a great tournament for us to get warmed up for the season," said Drew. "I felt pretty good about how I played but I still left a lot out there." Finishing tied for second six shots back at two under par were Barden Berry of Kinston, NC and Zach Byrd of Calabash, NC.

Champion: Abby Bools, Hickory, NC

In 2009 the CGA added the Carolinas Young Amateur to the schedule. This championship was created for players who are 18 to 23 years old and who have finished high school. The women's division was won by Abby Bools of Hickory, NC. Bools, a member of the East Carolina University Women's Golf Team, duplicated her first round score of one under par 71 to finish at two under par 142. Playing in a cold drizzle most of the day, Bools played steady enough to win by nine strokes over Emily Street of Forest City, NC. Bools recorded three birdies, thirteen pars and only two bogeys in her final round.
