

54th Carolinas Junior Girls
Croasdaile Country Club, Durham, NC
June 29-July 1, 2010
Champion: McKenzie Talbert, N. Augusta, SC

15-year-old McKenzie Talbert of N. Augusta, SC won her first CGA major championship by defeating Mattie Tobey of Denver, NC by a 6 & 4 margin. Talbert started off the day facing Elizabeth Thompson of Charleston, SC in the semifinals and won that match 4 & 3. Thompson dug deep with every swing but Talbert's steadiness proved to be too much for every opponent she faced. "She doesn't make many mistakes," Thompson said. Tobey found her way into the final championship match by defeating Sarah Bae of Cary, NC 1 up in the semifinals. Unfortunately for Tobey, her putter let her down in the finals against Talbert. "I was really disappointed in my putting today," Tobey said. "But I had a great time and I feel like I had a great week over all." As for Talbert's thoughts on winning her first CGA championship title, "My goal was to get into the finals so I would be invited to play on the Junior Girls Team, but winning and being exempt from stroke play qualifying next year isn't so bad either!" Talbert also was the stroke play qualifying medalist for a second straight year. Players were placed into flights for the duration of the championship and competed at match play.

Left: McKenzie Talbert (L) discusses her next shot with caddie, Morgan Webber. Girls often caddie for each other even after completing their own matches.

Center: Mattie Tobey was playing great all week but on the final day of the championship her putter seemed to let her down.

Right: 10-year-old Gina Kim of Chapel Hill, NC won the sub-junior division. This division plays 9 holes. The results for the sub-junior division and all other flights in this championship can be found on the CGA website.
