

50th North Carolina Amateur
Wilson Country Club
Wilson, NC
June 17-20, 2010
Champion: Ryan Heisey, Greensboro

Ryan Heisey, 23, of Greensboro birdied the final hole to shoot a tournament low round of 64 and set the all-time lowest 72-hole score in the North Carolina Amateur Championship with an 11-under par 269. Heisey, a recent University of North Carolina-Greensboro graduate, carded five birdies along with a chip-in eagle on the par five 7th hole, versus one bogey to win by one stroke over Sherrill Britt of West End. Heisey never really knew how he stood throughout the round although he had an inkling that he was in contention with all the “attention” he was receiving. “I thought I had gagged it on the 15th hole with the bogey but was able to bounce back by making birdie on the last two holes.” Third round leader Sherrill Britt held a three-stroke lead heading into the final round. He was at 11-under for the championship until an out of bounds tee shot led to a triple bogey on the par 4 12th hole. Britt battled back with birdies on 16 and 17. Heisey playing in front of Britt had just holed his birdie to take a one-stroke lead. Heading to the 396 yard par 4 18th hole, Britt hit the green in regulation but his 40 foot birdie attempt fell just inches short sealing the win for Heisey. On winning this event Heisey noted that, “A lot of hard work has paid off. I have been playing better the last 6 months and finished my college career on a good note but winning never crossed my mind.” Defending champion Mark McMillen of Smithfield shot a one-over par 71—282 to finish in a tie for 18th place. The first North Carolina Amateur Championship was played at Wilson Country Club in 1961.
