Champion: Meghan Moore, Bahama, NC

Meghan Moore of Bahama, NC fought off cold temperatures, half frozen greens and a stiff wind to go wire to wire in winning the women's division of the 2nd Carolinas Young Amateur Championship. Moore shot a second round of 77 to finish at 152 which was good enough for a one shot victory over Joanna Saleeby of Raleigh, NC. Saleeby came on strong shooting a second round 74 for a two day total of 153. Megan Wallace of Charlotte, NC finished in third place at 154. "Joanna (Saleeby) was coming on strong so I was just trying to make pars," said Moore. "The weather was really difficult to play in but I just stayed patient and it paid off for me in the end." This championship was created in 2009 for male and female amateurs between the ages of 18 and 23 who have finished high school.
