Format and Rules (New for 2013)

USGA Rules of Golf govern play. 18 holes of individual stroke play, gross and net scores. 100% course handicap. Field divided into six divisions based upon handicap index, gender and age. Players may choose to compete in any division in which they are eligible. Men A: 7.9 index or less (all ages, 6400-6800 yards); Men B: 8.0 index or higher (all ages 5900-6300 yards); Senior Men A: 7.9 index or less (age 55+, 5900-6300 yards); Senior Men B: 8.0 index or higher (age 55+, 5900-6300 yards); Super Senior Men: No index restriction (age 65+, 5600-6000 yards); Women: No index restriction (all ages, 5000-5400 yards). Note that yardage may vary based upon tournament site. A minimum of four entries is required to create a division. Otherwise, divisions are combined together using the appropriate handicap adjustment for the difference in course ratings. Division changes are not allowed after entries close.

The CGA monitors handicap score posting and reserves the right to adjust course handicaps and/or withhold prizes for competitors whose handicaps are considered unrealistic or who have participated in a disproportionate share of CGA prize distributions. Notice to Players rules sheet is available at www.carolin'sgolf.org. Players should check-in with CGA tournament director prior to play to receive official score card and tournament information. CGA will automatically post tournament scores for participants back to their home club handicap.
